I gave Angie 2 credit inquiries that I received yesterday and today. They really had nothing to go on, but could not find anything in Credit Safe. Nothing from the third. She took them with her. I don't think she did anything with them today.

Vali and I talked yesterday and I know there are some issues setting this account up. I have the owners personal cell and info listed here. Per Andre the Dewalt rep Mike was hoping someone could call him today. They would like to get this special purchase processed this week before the end of the month to take advantage of a Dewalt promo.

Let me know if any questions.
