Simpson Strong-Tie has recently implemented software to improve our resale exemption record-keeping in order to better comply with state and local sales tax laws. These laws require that tax is collected for shipments into their states. To avoid being subject to sales tax, a resale exemption for the ship-to state is required. If you believe you have been charged sales tax in error or have any questions, please contact us to discuss: taxcolumbus@strongtie.com. Please provide the invoice number in question to make the process as efficient as possible.

This is a domestic shipment only, and is not for export outside of the United States. These items are controlled by U.S. export laws, including the U.S. Export Administration Regulations and any export, transfer, re-export, or other disposal of any of these items to any other country or to any person other than the person identified herein is the sole responsibility of the exporting party. Simpson is not exporting these items and shall not be shown on any export or re-export shipping paperwork. Any person reselling, transferring or otherwise disposing of these items outside of the United States is solely responsible for complying with applicable export laws and regulations. Non-stocked items are not returnable. Contact Simpson Strong-tie for more information. For terms and conditions go to www.strongtie.com/invoiceterms.
